DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's note

1. The indicated allowability of claims 2, 4-5, 8 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Dow (U.S. 5,176,573). Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 4, and 7-8, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as by being anticipated Dow (U.S. 5,176,573).

Dow discloses a personal all-terrain vehicle comprising: a frame (38) supported for rolling movement along the ground on respective an engine (28) arranged for driving the wheels (14, 16) to displace the vehicle in a longitudinal direction of the vehicle; and a driver seat (figure 5 show a seat in the cab 50) supported on the frame (38) and arranged for supporting a driver of the vehicle thereon; the driver seat being positioned at an end of the frame (38) beyond the wheels (14) of the vehicle in the longitudinal direction of the vehicle; wherein there is provided a track (10, 12) extending about respective ones of the wheels (14, 16) on each side of the frame (38); wherein the seat is supported directly in behind the wheels (14), in alignment in the longitudinal direction with the wheels (14, 16); wherein there is provided a drive actuator (51) controlling drive of the vehicle in the longitudinal direction, the drive actuator (51) being positioned adjacent the drive seat for suitable actuation by a leg of the driver; wherein the engine (28) is supported at an end of the frame beyond the wheels in the longitudinal direction of the vehicle opposite the driver seat.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2, 5, 18, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dow in view of Wagner (U.S. 4,869,337).

Dow discloses every element of the invention as discussed above except that the orientation of the driver seat faces laterally outward, substantially perpendicularly to the longitudinal direction in operation.

Wagner teaches the invention, wherein the driver seat (50) supported on the frame for supporting a driver of the vehicle thereon; the driver seat (50) is faced transversely to the longitudinal direction of the vehicle (the seat 50 is capable of rotating 360 degrees, therefore it is capable of facing transversely to the longitudinal direction of the vehicle).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the driver seat of Dow's invention by using teaching of Wagner in order to provide an adjustable seat assembly which help the driver to easily access to different locations within the cab.

6. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dow in view of Barr (U.S. 5,513,868).

Dow discloses every element of the invention as discussed above except that there is a hitch member supported at a rear end of the vehicle adjacent to the seat.

Barr teaches the invention wherein there is a hitch member (48) supported at a rear end of the vehicle adjacent to the seat (30). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the vehicle of Dow by attaching a hitch member as taught by Barr in order to transport a smaller trailer when needed.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 3, 6, 9-10, 19, 21, and 23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 17 and 24-25 are allowed.
